

I am concerned about kids and people whose mental ability might be below par. They can get into trouble with telemarketing. We have a right to request and receive to not be called by these people, so many of whom are unscrupulous and focus on their own greed rather than truly serving the population. Thank you, Barbar Jackson NJ